

Additional Audition Date for "It's A Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play"

The Providence Players are continuing the audition process for "It's a Wonderful Life - A Live Radio Play," which will be performed at the James Lee Community Theatre on Dec 1-4, and again on Dec 8-11. We are still in the need of men for the supporting roles which require the actors to portray at least 3 characters in the show. We are also considering women for the supporting roles too. This show is NOT pre-cast with the same performers from 2010...in fact 4 of the actors from last year are not returning because of conflicts. We hope you can attend the next round of auditions on Oct 17 (Monday) from 7pm -9pm at the James Lee Center in the Multipurpose Room. Please look for more information at providenceplayers.org....This is a great show which I know will get you in the mood for the holidays!

It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play

Adapted by Joe Landry

From the screenplay by Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Frank Capra, and Jo Swerling

Directed by Brian O'Connor

Turn back the clock to the 1940s and set the dial for a double dose of holiday nostalgia. This version of It's a Wonderful Life harkens back to the golden age of radio, and is performed as a live radio broadcast in front of a studio audience. Conceived and drawn directly from Frank Capra's classic film, a talented ensemble of actors and one clever sound technician tell the story of George Bailey and the night he considers ending his life one fateful Christmas Eve. A holiday treat you will want to share with the entire family.

From the director

Please come prepared to read different roles from the play - individual readings and scene (multiple persons) readings as well. I need to see how the voices blend and work together. Remember, this is a radio show that you will perform in front of microphones. The voice and characterizations are critical for the play to work, as are the wonderful sounds effects!! - Brian O'Connor

Other helpful information

- Sides for the production will be supplied.
- Resumes and headshots are not required, but are encouraged and welcomed. Forms will be available at the time of the auditions for personal and contact information.
- The Providence Players welcomes both experienced and inexperienced actors and actresses. We try and make our auditions as relaxing and fun as possible.
- If cast, actors will be asked to become Providence Players Members ($10).
- Email providenceplayers@cox.net with any questions.
- If you are able, please RSVP to providenceplayers@cox.net to let us know you are coming.

General Rehearsal Schedule

Rehearsals will start in and around November 1 and will be held in the evenings approx 7-10pm. We will rehearse only during the week for the first two weeks, due to the director's weekend work schedule. More on times and rehearsals will be available in October after the show is cast. We do hope to work over the holiday Thanksgiving weekend IN the theatre, so please note we will probably work on that Sat and possibly Sunday (if available).

"It's a Wonderful Life" – Character Summary

General information - all cast members will be performing their roles and assisting with sound effects (Foley) during the show. This is what makes this production so unique.

Men (7)

George Bailey – family man, dreamer, full of hope and life

Clarence - angel looking to do the right thing to get his wings!

Henry Potter - Scrooge type who wants total control and has no heart towards anything else!

Joseph/Announcer - Lead performer who hosts the radio show and who will be the "chief angel" who assists with Clarence getting his wings.

The other three men will play a variety of roles from the play including: George's father, Cop, Bridge keeper, townsfolk, friends, etc. (The performers in these roles will have a real chance to shine!)

Women (4)

Mary - The home town girl always in love with George

Violet - The town beauty who always is a looker! She really loves...herself!

Rose - George's mother, confident, family counselor

The final woman cast will have a series of roles from the town, office, and friends of the Baileys.....versatility is a must!!

(Some of the other women's roles will be played by the woman playing primary roles too.)

Children (2-4)

Two children (perhaps split male and female) playing all child roles. There may be an opportunity to include as many as four children in the production.
